

Koichi and Phyllis played major roles in my life for many years as friends, academic colleagues, and traveling companions. My life would have been significantly diminished without their help and friendship. Somehow Zoom seems like a poor way to have a party for Phyllis, but I hope we'll be able to meet in person sometime soon.

Paul Groner