

DUNHUANG AND SILK ROAD SEMINAR SERIES

Easter 2023

DR. CHRIS JONES (UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE)

Buddha-nature Between India and China: Analysing the Creative Translation Work of Dharmakṣema in the Early Fifth Century

11 May

Room 9

Lecture Block
CB3 9DA

DR. DROR WEIL (UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE)

Polyglossia, Trans-local Materialities and Textual Performability: Jewish Texts in Early Modern China

25 May

Room 9

Lecture Block
CB3 9DA

DR. FRANCESCO BIANCHINI (UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE)

How “Public” was Buddhism’s Engagement with Medicine? Sketches from Pre-1400s Asia

01 June

Room 9

Lecture Block
CB3 9DA

PROF. GEORGIOS HALKIAS (UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG)

The Encounter of Hellenism with Buddhism: A Tale of Conversion and Cultural Diffusion

15 June

Room 8&9

FAMES
CB3 9DA

MR. DANIEL SHERIDAN (UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE)

The Sogdian Christian Presence along the Silk Roads

23 June

Room 8&9

FAMES
CB3 9DA

These talks are held in person and, when possible, also streamed via Zoom. The talks are at 17:10 UK Time. The seminar series is organised by Prof. Imre Galambos with the generous support of the Glorison Global Network and Dhammachai International Research Institute.

For further information, contact: Junfu Wong (PhD candidate) at jw2034@cam.ac.uk