

Table of Contents

Worldmaking in East Asian Buddhism

Preface: Hualin Series on Buddhist Studies (by ZHAN Ru) .....	iv
Foreword: Worldmaking in East Asian Buddhism (by Jinhua CHEN) .....	ix
1. Buddhist Worldviews and Worlds Viewed
1.1. Jeffrey KOTYK The Moon as a Celestial Body and God in the Buddhist Worldview: From India to China .....	2
1.2. Erika VÖRÖS Searching for a Bodhisattva Land on Earth: Potalaka Faith in East Asia .....	29
1.3. LI Yicong 李怡淙 The Transmission of the Four-Pointed Cape Motif: From Gandhāra to the East and West .....	73
1.4. Beier WANG Conceptualisation and ‘World-Making’: A Study on Prapañca as an Imprint in Yogācāra Treatises .....	103
1.5. Sara LAWS Buddhist Worldmaking in the American Midcentury .....	124

2. One Temple, One World
2.1. ZHAN Ru
The Design of Ximing Monastery and Its Influence on Japanese Monasteries .....	172
2.2. HUANG Bing
The Gimbal-Mounted Xiangnang and Its Transmission to the Islamic World during the Yuan Dynasty .....	196
2.3. Yingxue WANG
Beetles and the Buddha: The Tamamushi Shrine, Smallpox, and Healing in Seventh-Century Japan .....	219
2.4. George A. KEYWORD
On Bonshakuji as the Penultimate Buddhist Temple to Protect the State in Early Japanese History .....	264
3. New Worlds Emerging from Religious Mergings
3.1. CHEN Huaiyu
Making Four Buddhist Worlds: A Reading of the Liturgies for Creating Ritual Spaces in Dunhuang Manuscripts .....	316
3.2. Tamami HAMADA
Śākyamuni Buddha World Depicted in Vimalakīrti Scenes in Dunhuang Mogao Caves: The Expansion of Buddha Land to China .....	353
3.3. Barend J. TER HAAR
The Pure Land as a Place: Storytelling and Ritual Practice ....	375
Author Biographies .....	409
Index .....	415